Day 02:

Playing Golf in the Colombo Golf Club.

The Royal Colombo Golf Club: This course is 5'770 m long (par 71). A flat course with broad fairways which looks simple to beginners but there are many water hazards and well guarded bunkers which quickly change the opinion. The Royal Colombo Golf Club is easily accessible, being 20 minutes drive from all first-class hotels in the city.

Overnight at a hotel in Colombo

Day 03:

Breakfast at the hotel

Colombo to Kandy via pinnawala, to visit elephant orphanage to witness the feeding of elephants, which takes place daily. The highlight of this event is to observe feeding of baby elephants using Milk bottles. (All these events can be photographed)

After feeding of the elephants they will be taken by foot to a nearby river for their daily bath, which normally takes place.

Afterwards continue drive to Kandy.

Rest of the day at leisure.

Evening witness a cultural pageant highlighting various up country dance forms, including a fire walking display.

Day 04:

Playing Golf in the Victoria Golf Club.

Victoria Golf Club, Digana: This course is 6'190 m long (par 73) a championship golf course designed by Donald Steel and inaugurated early in 1999. The fairways are rather narrow in a hilly country side. Stately trees and avenues of coconuts lend the course an immediate air maturity. Impressive natural outcrops of rocks are a distinctive feature and indeed a hazard of the course.

Overnight at a hotel in Kandy

Day 05:

After breakfast commence on a sightseeing tour of the Kandy city - the last capital of the Sri Lankan king.

Visit the Temple of tooth relic. Drive past the picturesque University Campus premises and with a visit to the Market Place, an arts & crafts show room. Then drive along the Upper Lake road to get a panoramic view of the Kandy Lake and its environs.

Visit Peradeniya Botanical Gardens, where a rare collection of tropical exotic and indigenous flora can be viewed and also the famous Orchid House.

Then proceed to Nuwara Eliya. Enroute to Nuwra Eliya we will be visiting tea factory, sightseeing of water falls and tea plantations.

Overnight at a hotel in Nuwara Eliya.

Day 06:

Playing Golf in the Nuwara Eliya Golf Club.

The Nuwara Eliya Golf Club: This course which is reputed to be one of Asia's finest is 5'520 m (par 71). The fairways are long and narrow and bordered by fir trees and thick bushes. It demands skilful "position play" and the hilly terrain makes it essential that players can cope with up-hill and down-hill lies.
